

be active & energise your life!

Dynamic Studios Philosophy

...To those who learn

- Encourage all that is you; what stimulates and enhances your being.
- Unfold and enhance your own talents and expression from within.
- See the essence of what you are doing and how to build it into an art form.
- Help to achieve all your dreams and goals through knowledge and self-confidence.
- Encourage and support the expression of self-devised goals and endeavours.
- Receive information and communication that is clear, organised, well-timed and directed to all your needs.
- A commitment to:

Develop your self-confidence, build your organisation and communication skills, unfold your self expression and enhance your individual and collaborative productivity of self-expression.

...To those who teach

- Be enthusiastic and passionate teachers that love their craft and share their knowledge and experience in positive ways.
- Constantly maintain an environment that evokes creativity.
- Participate in an environment of people who are seeking self-fulfillment and personal development through nurturing avenues.
- Teach in ways that people can easily connect with and understand.
- To teach and further develop the experience of dance, performing arts and fitness in variety of ways.
- Teach with a mind-set; that those you reach can aspire higher than you give.